

5 I've got your back!

A story writer will often introduce humour and fun into a story through a character known as a sidekick. They're often children, a damsel in distress or someone that lives in the setting.

Use the activity sheet to help you create a sidekick character for your adventure story.

6 We have a problem!

To keep the reader interested, the story writer will always add a problem into the story.

Use the activity sheet to help you plan and write a problem for your adventure story.

It could be...

- the hero is about to fall off a cliff
- they are being chased through a maze
- the long lost treasure has been stolen

These are just a few ideas. Don't be afraid to use one of your own.
