

All good things start at the river

In the past, many settlements were built close to a river.

One of the most famous rivers is the river Nile.

Where is the river Nile?

Why was this river important to support the communities living there?

Make a fact sheet on the river Nile.

