

Using Personal and Possessive Pronouns

1. Sort the pronouns into the correct box. Remember that personal pronouns represent people or things and possessive pronouns show ownership.

| | | | | | | | |
|------|-------|-------|-----|------|------|--------|-----|
| I | yours | his | him | he | you | theirs | she |
| hers | ours | their | it | them | they | we | |
| mine | us | its | | | | | |

Personal

Possessive

Now, choose two personal and two possessive pronouns from each list and put them into four separate sentences.

personal pronoun 1: _____

personal pronoun 2: _____

possessive pronoun 1: _____

possessive pronoun 2: _____
