

Statements - Statements are sentences which tell you something. They end with a full stop.

Questions - Questions are sentences that ask you something. They usually end with a question mark.

Commands - Commands are sentences that tell you to do something. They are often urgent or angry and can be very short.

Exclamations - Exclamations are sentences that begin with 'what' or 'how'. They are full sentences, include a verb and end with an exclamation mark.

Write S, Q, C or E next to each sentence to show what type of sentence it is.

1. Is it cold outside?
2. How kind of him to do that!
3. Climb up that tree.
4. "What a nice young man!" shouted Anne.
5. It is great fun going to the park.
6. A puppy will grow up to be a dog.
7. Should you really eat 7 chocolate bars?
8. Get down from the roof!

Now have a go at creating your own. Make sure you label what it is (statement, question, command or exclamation).
